VBS Prayer

As we embark on a High Seas Expedition to explore the mighty love of God, we ask for your prayers. VBS is such an exciting week of worship, activities and fun, that we need continual prayer to guide us through the many aspects of the week. Even if you can not be here at the church, your prayers are vital to the success of the week.

Please take time each day to pray for the following:

- | | |
|--|---|
| that families will make the time for VBS. | for endurance through the week. |
| for VBS leadership. | for a clear salvation message. |
| for good weather. | for Family Night (July 1). |
| for cooperation. | for registration to run smoothly on Monday. |
| for health of the workers. | for dismissal to be as smooth as possible. |
| for safety of the children and volunteers. | for follow-up of decisions. |

Thank you in advance for taking time to pray for VBS during the month of June and especially the week of VBS, June 28 - July 1. Your prayers will make a difference.

High Seas Expedition Family Night

We will end our voyage on the High Seas with a celebration time in Floating Finale (the Worship Center). Please plan on joining us as we come together one more time to enjoy the music, skits, pictures and Bible points of the week. After our time of worship and fun you can tour the ship (campus) to see the places the children have been going to all week. Then join us in the Ships Galley (the Gym) for some goodies.

Minister of Youth Search Committee Elected

The church has elected a committee to search for a Minister of Youth. A copy of the job description is available at the welcome desks or in the church office. Please pray for this committee: Margaret Moore (Chair), Sue Hatfield, Derrick Jones, Molly Petrey and Wayne Shoemaker. Ex-officio members who will serve with the committee are Allan Blume, Bud Russell and Glenn Privette (Personnel Committee Chair). Watch the church website for information on submitting individuals for consideration in this ministry position.

Wednesday Summer Schedule

June 23 and 30: We will only have Celebration Choir rehearsal and the Hispanic Ministry Bible Study meeting on Wednesday evenings. Missions Education groups (Mission Friends, GA's and RA's), Youth and House of Prayer will not meet on these dates. The purpose is to give Missions Education and Youth leaders a break as we head into our VBS and due to summer vacations for many. We will resume Wednesday night activities beginning July 7.

"Watermelon Wednesdays"
July 7 - August 4 • 6:30 p.m.

Youth and adults will meet in the Worship Center for Bible study on the theme, "Why Do Bad Things Happen to Good People?" Following Bible study we will have informal fellowship for all ages and refreshments in the gym..

"Watermelon Wednesdays for Kids"
Life's A Rollercoaster
Rooms 1103 & 1104 • 1st - 5th grade

Kids love roller coasters. They love thrill rides of all kinds, carnival games and theme park food. "Life's A Roller Coaster" uses all of these attention grabbers to teach children in a fun, kid-friendly way how to deal with the stress of life. As kids examine a stressful day in Jesus' life, they learn that He modeled ways of dealing with death, hurting people, fear, temptation and the world's needs. Through interactive Bible stories, hands on amusement park science experiments, tasty object lessons (food on a stick), engaging drama, and creative midway games, children will apply Jesus' teachings first in their hearts and then their lives.
